Let's Participate!

If you're not sure what General Service does, or why you should care, this spring has some great opportunities to find out, with the Agenda Topics Workshop, on February 16, and the Pre-Conference Assembly, April 13-14!

I was lucky enough to be introduced to General Service early, by a GSR in my home group, and I decided to volunteer at the Agenda Topics Workshop when I was about 3 months sober. I had some other things I didn't want to be thinking about that day and I'd already been advised that stepping up was a good way to take my mind off of my own troubles.

It was an amazing experience! I'd heard those people at meetings and I wanted to hear more. I listened to General Service people and lots of people who are involved in AA in many capacities.

Welcome to BTG 2019

I'm grateful and happy to report that momentum is building for a great year of contact service in Bridging the Gap (a subcommittee of GSO)

We welcome and celebrate Jay Birks in "taking the helm" for our group of drunks. We are committed to contacting newcomers for their first meeting after release from any one of the centers they have attended: Azure Acres, Mt. Vista Farms, Campobello, Orenda Center, and Olympia House. We're planning on adding a few more to this current list. Turning Point and Sonoma Co. MADF/NCDF jails are among our goals for taking in presentations using video and volunteer speakers.

Bill and Dr. Bob were brought together through contacts, similar to what BTG uses, today. Remember, Bill was alone and in need of someone to take his message of hope in Akron, Ohio. He called the Reverend Tunks, on a hunch. He was given a list of contacts to call. On the ninth call Bob got hold of Henrietta Sieberling, and, she gave him Anne Smith's number. Bill made that 11th call to set-up a visit with Dr. Bob. I'd say that is "...going to any lengths!"

Help us to keep-up that kind of AA commitment to love and service. Our next meeting is listed in the calendar on page 5.

H & I

On January 2, 2019, the Hospitals & Institutions Committee welcomed the new year with new meeting reps Tiana S., representing the Fresh Air Group; Bill M., Daily Reflections (Cloverdale); Chris E., Redwood Winners (Windsor); Denise D., Woman's Book Study (Rohnert Park); Rachel L., Step Sisters; and TBone, LGBT New Comers Group. For suggestions on how to do just that, please come to the next meeting of the H&I Committee, Wednesday, February 6, 2016, at 6:15 pm. As always, everyone is welcome to attend the orientation that begins at 5:45pm. The location is the Community of Christ Church, 1495 W. Steele Lane, on the corner at Range Avenue (parking is on Range, behind the church. There's additional parking at the ice arena).

(Cont. from page 1) I talked to someone about the second and third step issues I was having. I helped out in the kitchen. And, when it got too crowded, they sent me out to hear the speakers. I learned about how AA makes decisions, and how we all contribute to the process. The ideas for change come from individuals and groups around the country. Then, they become agenda topics that are discussed by everyone. Each group has the opportunity to make its voice heard through their GSR, who passes on their group conscience to the area Delegate, who then gets to discuss these topics with all the other Delegates at the annual Conference in New York. If there is substantial unanimity, new pamphlets may be issued, new books may be written, new outreach can take place, etc., etc.

You'll get to hear from our Delegate, Teddy B.-W., and from panels talking about the conference themes and how this whole process works; and then you'll get the opportunity to participate in mock sharing sessions, and experience how a group conscience reveals itself (hint: the more people who participate, the better it is). It's really quite a process: making room for everyone to be heard, and often resulting in surprising shifts in viewpoints when minority or dissenting views have the chance to speak up. The group doesn't have to come to one point of view. The GSR could end up telling the Delegate that the group had several thoughts on the subject. The point is that the Delegate needs to know how we all feel about the topics at hand.

Just in the last few years, as the result of ideas generated in our area and echoed around the fellowship, there are new pamphlets. They include topics on sobriety & mental health issues; atheists & agnostics in recovery; and a new pamphlet for Spanish-speaking women. There are updates to many other pamphlets that had become outdated. Check to see if your group stocks the most recent versions! They've been updated because the fellowship as a whole thought it was necessary. And, the new pamphlets are particularly important for people who may just be thinking about whether AA is right for them.

That's just literature! There are lots of other topics up for consideration as well. You and your group get to decide which topic you most want to discuss.

At the pre-Conference assembly, in April, GSRs and AAs from the entire area (stretching from Monterey to the Oregon border) will get together to share their group consciences on the agenda topics. Also, the fellowship will decide whether to ask the General Conference to start work on a fifth edition of the Big Book, or introduce new literature on meditation?

These are my two favorite General Service events of any year. And they're right here in Santa Rosa, this spring! It's never too early to take part. AA values the input of all members — new and old. Often, new members have insights that people who've been around a little longer might not think of.

General Service has been one of the best parts of my recovery, and I hope you'll give it a chance, too. Also, we have the best potluck north of the Golden Gate Bridge!! -- Ann R., GS Newsletter Editor

TELESERVICE

Teleservice staffs the A.A. hotline, providing 24-hour phone access to a live recovering alcoholic. This is vital Twelfth Step service; providing the hand of A.A. to the alcoholic reaching out for help. Calls are forwarded to your home or mobile phone, and training is provided. There are occasionally open shifts to fill. For information, see Teleservice listing above.
