Serenity

Serenity is a word often heard and used in AA meetings. But what does it really mean? Emmet Fox, in his book Sermon on the Mount, says that serenity is a word used by mystics to refer to the fundamental tranquility of soul. The fundamental tranquility of soul. This is a state of consciousness that we can enter into at any moment. But what is it that keeps us from being aware of that tranquility? Certainly resentment, anger, fear, remorse, focusing on the past or the future... anything other than being in the present moment. How often are we railing against our present circumstances in life? Trying to change our external reality so that we can fix our internal reality. Yet we know that acceptance is the answer to our present problems. That does not mean that we stay in an abusive relationship, or fail to confront contractors as they make mistakes while doing repairs on our home. It means we accept that this is happening, and we shift our focus from outside ourselves to inside ourselves. Bless them and change me we are taught. And what a powerful prayer that is for it causes us to mindfully send thoughts to that other person to experience peace (or prosperity or abundance in all things in their lives) and that we focus instead on the attitudes that we can change within ourselves. This is a powerful shift. It puts the onus on us to be responsible for our thoughts in every moment

The path to serenity is well established. It is through meditation. Yogis liken our untrained minds to drunken monkeys. Our thoughts are swinging from tree to tree without conscious awareness of what they are doing. Meditation gives us the practice of stopping our minds. Glenda Green in, Love Without End... Jesus Speaks, says the mind is a great servant but a terrible master. Yet we can train that mind to stop. Sitting in uninterrupted silence from ten to thirty minutes daily. Focusing on a sacred passage or simply on our breathing...in...out...thought (no that's not what I'm doing now)...in...out allows us to master our minds. Then, we can put into our minds what we want our thoughts to act on. We become the master and our mind becomes the servant. We all know how a negative thought can carry us away into depression, despair or worse. Similarly positive thoughts can carry us to new heights. As it says in the Upanishads They go beyond sorry who behold the glory of the Self.

—Respectfully submitted, Rose B.

Shellie's Story

Due to illness and geography, I'd been on the AA boat, but not in it. After moving to Cotati, I decided to jump in the middle of AA by making new connections: sponsor, friends and service. I turned this task over to my Higher Power.

Hearing that Intergroup was looking for a new Activities Chair, my HP whispered in my ear, "Raise your hand – you'll like this – it'll be big fun. RAISE YOUR HAND!" My hand shot up, SLOWLY. My excitement increased. I felt, "This will be fun – I love a great party – I throw a great party!" I took the gig and haven't regretted it.

NO LONGER MEETING

Due to a lack of participation, the 8PM Monday night "Big Book Study" at 3554 Round Barn Blvd. in Santa Rosa will be discontinued on December 1st, 2018. This is unfortunate, as the rent is very low, the parking is ample, and the chairs are comfortable. The room capacity is about 30. If you are a past member of this group and would like to see it continue, or if you have an AA group meeting on Monday night, and are struggling to pay your rent, or just looking for a new venue, please attend the meeting between now and October 29, 2018.

HOSPITALS & INSTITUTIONS

"When I am feeling depressed, I repeat to myself statements such as these: 'Pain is the touchstone of progress.'.... 'Fear no evil'... 'This too shall pass'... 'This experience can be turned to benefit.'"

"These fragments of prayer bring far more than mere comfort. They keep me on the track of right acceptance; they break up my compulsive themes of guilt, depression, rebellion, and pride; and sometimes they endow me with the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference." [Bill W., Grapevine, March 1962]

On October 3, 2018, the Hospitals and Institutions Committee welcomed new meeting reps Kelly B., representing Sober Sunday; Robin J., Women's Meeting (Petaluma); Michael M., Speaker-Discussion Meeting (Cotati); Joann R., A Vision for You; Jeff A., Monday Night Sebastopol AA Stag Meeting; Mishal A., Keep It Simple (Petaluma); Nancy B., Gravenstein Gay Group (Sebastopol); Tammy F., Sober Sisters (Sebastopol); Marie H., Women's Tuesday at Noon (Windsor); and Marie H., Oaks Fellowship. Your service is greatly appreciated!

Congratulations to our new H&I chair, Steven H. We look forward to working with you!

Greetings to our visitors: Kimberly, Dave, Jane, Dorothy, Tammy, Jorge and Perry. Keep coming back!

Almost 70 years of sobriety was being celebrated for the month of October

Are you willing to share your gift of sobriety with an alcoholic who is confined? For suggestions on how to do just that, please come to the next meeting of the H&I Committee, Wednesday, November 7, 2018, at 6:15 pm. As always, everyone is welcome to attend the orientation that begins at 5:45. The location is the Community of Christ Church, 1495 W. Steele Lane, on the corner at Range Avenue (parking is on Range, behind the church, with additional parking at the ice arena).

In service,

Mardi

(Shellie's Story cont. from Page 1) I've met lovely people in the form of the marvelous band of creative, hardworking funsters—our Planning Committee: Charlotte, Manuel, Amelia and Noel. Now, my program is stronger than ever. I get to new meetings in new places, talk with people I wouldn't have met, and, I'm connecting to my new home. God truly does for us what we can't do for ourselves.

As you read this, the Halloween Dance will be a memory and the Winter Dance is building in anticipation and momentum. You're invited to join us. There are so many opportunities for service... large and small. Come and join our dance, be of service, connect, and, revel in the freedom recovery gives us. Life is Good! "Service Keeps Us Sober!"

Cheers!

GENERAL SERVICE

Change. As inevitable as the seasons and our lives.

The season of change is upon us in Sonoma County District 12 General Service, as well as in A.A. General Service in California Northern Coastal Area 06.

On November 3, CNCA will be holding its biennial Election Assembly, in Pleasanton, to elect a new Panel of Officers and Delegate to serve our Area 06,. The new Delegate will represent our Area in the annual A.A. Conference in New York.

Two days after that, on November 5th, District 12 will hold elections (in lieu of our regular monthly business meeting) to usher in a new 2-year panel of individuals committed to helping connect Sonoma County to the broader world of A.A.

As many of us are fond of saying, just about the time we've become comfortable in our service positions and finally feel like "we've got this down", it's time for us to let someone else take over the job. It's important to remember the Spirit of Rotation. As Frank R., a past delegate from Maine, was quoted as saying in the 1983 Oct/Nov issue of Box 459, "Rotation is the main method we have to prevent power, prestige, and personal recognition from distorting our best intentions."

As outgoing trusted servants who have acquired years of experience in our positions, and who now understand "the best way" of doing our jobs, one of the last acts in our positions might possibly be one of our greatest acts of service and humility - providing a good Pass-It-On to the person who will take our position over from us.

Many of us come into our new positions with nothing more than the time, energy and willingness to serve our fellowship and do our part to further A.A.'s primary purpose. These can be exciting and frightening times for us as we do our best to serve our fellow alcoholics and not "break A.A" in the process.

By sharing with an incoming trusted servant the experience, strength and hope we have gained during our tenure in our positions, in the form of a thorough Pass-It-On, we provide tools they can use to best succeed in their new role.

Because in the end, it isn't at all important whether we have done a better job than those who came before us or those who will come after us.

What's important that the fellowship continues to grow and thrive in an ever changing world, and that is a task greater than any one of us alone can accomplish.

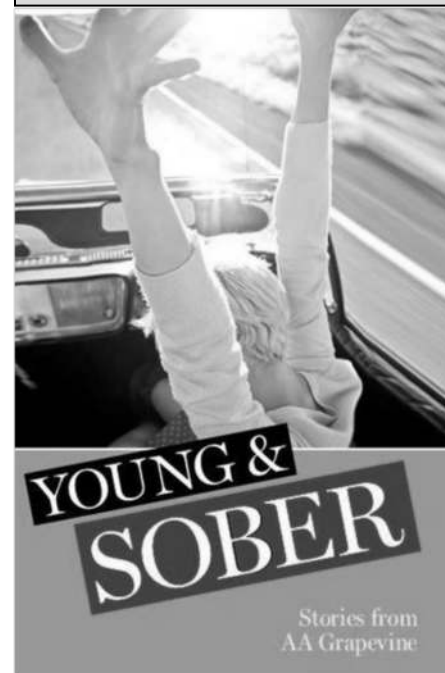

-Eric H., District 12 Newsletter Editor

TELESERVICE

Teleservice staffs the A.A. hotline, providing 24-hour phone access to a live recovering alcoholic. This is vital Twelfth Step service; providing the hand of A.A. to the alcoholic reaching out for help. Calls are forwarded to your home or mobile phone, and training is provided. There are occasionally open shifts to fill. For information, see Teleservice listing above.
